JUDGE J. E. BOOTH.

JOHN E. BOOTH.

Judge John E. Booth is a son of Richard L. and Elsie Edge Booth. He was born at Bedfordleigh, Lancashire, England, June 29, 1847. He emigrated to Utah with his parents, arriving in Salt Lake City September 12, 1857. He was educated at the Draper school and later at the University of Deseret under Dr. John R. Park, graduating from that institution in 1870. He served in the Blackhawk war in Captain Caleb W. Haws' company of cavalry in Sanpete and Sevier counties during the months of August, September and October, 1866. He has held an array of offices, state, county and municipal, and also ecclesiastical.

Upon the resignation of Judge W. N. Dusenberry from the bench of the District court of the Fourth Judicial district in May, 1899, he was appointed by Governor Wells to fill the vacancy. At the general election the following year he was elected to fill that high and responsible position, which he has filled with honor to himself and the gratification of his constituents ever since, being re-elected in 1904.

The career of Judge Booth upon the bench has been one of honesty and integrity and very satisfactory to a large majority of the people of this district and unless the political complexion of the district changes he is likely to be the incumbent of that office for some time to come.

HON. JOHN EDWIN BOOTH, who for two terms was mayor of Spanish Fork, 1928-31, is a former state commander of the American Legion in Utah and now a member of the State Senate. He and his wife were married in the Salt Lake Temple. She was born in London, England, and died in 1908.

John Edwin Booth attended school at Spanish Fork, graduated from high school in 1913, and in April, 1915, completed the course in the School of Pharmacy of the University of California. He was licensed as a registered pharmacist in California in April, 1915, in Utah in July of the same year and, returning to Spanish Fork, became financially interested in the City Drug Store. In August, 1917, he bought the World Drug Company, of which he has since been owner and manager. He is a member of the Utah Pharmaceutical Association.

Mr. Booth in July, 1918, joined the United States Army and was sent to Camp Lewis, Washington. He was medical sergeant in the Thirty-seventh Field Artillery until honorably discharged January 21, 1919. He took a prominent part in starting American Legion work in Utah. From 1922 to 1926 he was the national committeeman of the American Legion of Utah and for six years, from 1924, was one of the fifteen men in the United States who served on the Americanization Committee of the Legion.

He was first elected mayor of Spanish Fork in November, 1927, and rounded out his two terms in that office in 1931.

Since June, 1929, Mr. Booth has devoted much time to his interests as a poultry rancher. He is president of the local Utah Poultry Association. He owns one of the largest poultry ranches in this district, and in the spring of 1930 brooded 20,000 chicks. On August 17, 1929, he was elected president of the State Municipal League, and is a charter member of the American Taxpayers League. For the past four years he has been president of the Central Utah Baseball League.
